ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to my thesis supervisor, Professor Terry Woods, Senior Lecturer in the Department of Law, Governance and International Relations of the London Metropolitan University, for being so enthusiastic, cooperative and helpful during the development of this dissertation.

I would also like to express my most admirable and sincere thanks to Mr. Danny Boy Terzakis, founder and first president of the United Hellenic American Congress (UHAC) in Washington DC, US presidential advisor during the Clinton administrations, and distinguished scholar, for his great – by all means – guidance and assistance to help me better understand the process of policy making in the United States especially in Chicago Illinois and Washington DC.

Moreover I would like to thank Mr. Steven Rangoussis, distinguished Author and Historian, and also member emeritus of the Hellenic Library of Southern California for supplying me with the book “The Cyprus Conspiracy – America, Espionage and the Turkish Invasion”, Ms. Kelly B. Vlahakis Director of the Hellenic American Council in Los Angeles California, for supplying me with the book “The secret archives of Kissinger – The decision for the bisection”, and Mr. Demetrios Georgakopoulos, Founder and Principal of the “ATHENA” Hellenic Educational Society in Chicago Illinois, and also Secretary of the UNION of Greek American Organizations in the United States and Canada for sponsoring me.

Finally I would like to extend my sincere thanks to my brother Thanos A. Neophytou L.L.B., and my father Mr. Antonis Chr. Neophytou for their assistance in providing me with indispensable legal and other advice and for their encouragement and sustenance in alleviating my research.

“I would like to dedicate this thesis dissertation to Dr. Erika Paganucci Reis Ferreira Da Costa Araujo, to my family, and to all people that contributed towards its successful completion”
